

I am concerned that the proposed new rules on consolidated ownership will lead to less diversity in options for citizens to get news information and less different viewpoints being presented.

Please retain the current rules on ownership.